

THE DECADE THAT ROARED 1920s EXHIBIT RECEIVES FUNDS FROM THE
RHODE ISLAND COUNCIL FOR THE HUMANITIES

June 2016.... For the third year in a row, Hearthside has been selected by the RI Council for the Humanities for a mini-grant during the spring round of applications. Hearthside has been awarded a $2,000 mini grant during their recent round of applications.

This grant funds the important production of all the informative panels for our Decade That Roared exhibit opening on July 16th, which will be displayed throughout the house. It is through their help, and that of our board member and volunteer Seth Hamilton, that we are able to create such attractive panels that educate and stimulate further thought about important aspects of our heritage.

The funds make it possible to create permanent panels so that the exhibit may live on for future events and traveling exhibits.

The Friends of Hearthside is extremely grateful to the Rhode Island Council for the Humanities for their support and the opportunity to create unique exhibits for the public.
